

What doesn't happen during the board meeting?

Public comments are an opportunity for the Board of Directors to listen to district patrons. The Board does not respond to comments or attempt to answer questions during the public comment time.

The board values and welcomes civil, respectful statements and clear, concise communications that inform its deliberations, mission and vision. Negative assertions about an individual's character or motives do not serve this end. During public comments, speakers should refrain from repetitious, profane or irrelevant comments.

Individuals with disabilities

Individuals with disabilities who may need a modification to participate in a meeting should contact the Superintendent's office no later than three (3) working days before a regular meeting and as soon as possible in advance of a special meeting so arrangements for modifications can be made.
